

Tom Drivas of Appia Rare Earths & Uranium Discusses Alces Lake and “Exciting” Brazilian Acquisition

written by InvestorIntel | March 16, 2023

In this InvestorIntel interview, Tracy Weslosky talks to Appia Rare Earths & Uranium Corp.'s (CSE: API | OTCQX: APAAF) CEO and Director Tom Drivas about signing a letter agreement to acquire up to 70% interest in a prospective rare earths ionic clay project in Brazil. Currently doing its due diligence, Tom discusses how the new Brazilian project, if finalized, would not interfere with their main focus on the Alces Lake project. Tom goes on to say that the Brazilian project will have a new team with direct ionic clay expertise.

With an extensive exploration program planned for this year at the Alces Lake project in northern Saskatchewan, Tom discusses the company's focus on delineating high-grade critical rare earth elements and gallium. Tom also provides an update on Appia's ongoing relationship with the Saskatchewan Research Council (“SRC”) which is developing a rare earths processing facility in Saskatoon and the plans for the SRC to process monazite from the Alces Lake project as early as next year.

To access the full InvestorIntel interview, click here

Don't miss other InvestorIntel interviews. Subscribe to the InvestorIntel YouTube channel by clicking here.

About Appia Rare Earths & Uranium Corp.

Appia is a publicly traded Canadian company in the rare earth element and uranium sectors. The Company is currently focusing on delineating high-grade critical rare earth elements and gallium on the Alces Lake property, as well as exploring for high-grade uranium in the prolific Athabasca Basin on its Loranger, North Wollaston, Eastside, and Otherside properties. The Company holds the surface rights to exploration for 113,837.15 hectares (281,297.72 acres) in Saskatchewan. The Company also has a 100% interest in approximately 12,545 hectares (31,000 acres), with rare earth element and uranium deposits over five mineralized zones in the Elliot Lake Camp, Ontario.

To learn more about Appia Rare Earths & Uranium Corp., click here.

Disclaimer: Appia Rare Earths & Uranium Corp. is an advertorial member of InvestorIntel Corp.

This interview, which was produced by InvestorIntel Corp., (IIC), does not contain, nor does it purport to contain, a summary of all the material information concerning the “Company” being interviewed. IIC offers no representations or warranties that any of the information contained in this interview is accurate or complete.

This presentation may contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities legislation. Forward-looking statements are based on the opinions and assumptions of the management of the Company as of the date made. They are inherently susceptible to uncertainty and other factors that could cause actual events/results to differ materially from these forward-looking statements. Additional risks and uncertainties, including those that the Company does not know about now or that it currently deems immaterial, may also adversely affect the Company's business or any investment therein.

Any projections given are principally intended for use as objectives and are not intended, and should not be taken, as assurances that the projected results will be obtained by the Company. The assumptions used may not prove to be accurate and a potential decline in the Company's financial condition or results of operations may negatively impact the value of its securities. Prospective investors are urged to review the Company's profile on Sedar.com and to carry out independent investigations in order to determine their interest in investing in the Company.

If you have any questions surrounding the content of this interview, please contact us at +1 416 792 8228 and/or email us direct at info@investorintel.com.