

Critical Material Corner experts debate one of the most important minerals for sourcing rare earths

In this episode of Critical Materials Corner, InvestorIntel Editor-in-Chief & Publisher Jack Lifton and Geologist and Newsletter Writer Byron King take on monazite – one of the most important and desirable mineral ores for sourcing rare earths. With guest Frederick Kozak, President of Appia Rare Earths & Uranium Corp. (CSE: API | OTCQB: APAAF), Byron King explains that while it is very rare to find a monazite deposit, “it is extremely rare to find a really really good monazite deposit...”

“One of the hottest rare earth deposits you will ever see anywhere...” starts King, find out why Saskatchewan, Canada is critical to the production of rare earths in North America.
