

Dev Randhawa provides an update on Fission 3.0 and discusses uranium and sustainability

written by InvestorNews | April 14, 2022

In a recent InvestorIntel interview, Tracy Weslosky interviews Fission 3.0 Corp.'s (TSXV: FUU | OTCQB: FISOF) Chairman and CEO Dev Randhawa regarding an update on the Company's 16 projects in the Athabasca Basin region of Saskatchewan, Canada. The Athabasca Basin has the highest-grade uranium deposits in the world.

In the interview, which may also be viewed on the InvestorIntel YouTube channel (click here to subscribe), Dev Randhawa comments on the current 4,000m seven hole winter drill program on its 100% owned Patterson Lake North (PLN) project in the southwest Athabasca Basin region. Dev discusses his team's history of exploration success and how they are working towards having a third success with Fission 3.0. Dev shares his views on the current uranium market which is running hot right now. He discusses the need for strong uranium long-term contract pricing and the possibility of Sprott Physical Uranium Trust becoming listed on the NYSE. He also discusses the implications of sanctioning Russian sourced uranium due to the Russian invasion of Ukraine.

Dev gives a most interesting interview which is well worth watching. To watch the full interview, click here
