Troy Boisjoli of Murchison Minerals on the ongoing drill program at its HPM battery metals project

written by InvestorNews | December 8, 2021

In a recent InvestorIntel interview, Chris Thompson spoke with Troy Boisjoli, President and CEO of Murchison Minerals Ltd. (TSXV: MUR) about recently joining Murchison's team and about the ongoing drill program at its HPM battery metals project targeting highly-prospective PYC Nickel-Copper-Cobalt Prospect.

In this InvestorIntel interview, which may also be viewed on YouTube (click here to subscribe to the InvestorIntel Channel), Troy provided an update on Murchison's recent fully-subscribed private placement and how the funds will be deployed. Located in an infrastructure-rich part of Quebec, Troy said that the 100% owned HPM battery metals project has the potential to be a camp scale project covering 139 km2 of highly prospective mineralization for nickel, copper, and cobalt.
