

Lithium Australia NL to present at InvestorIntel's 6th Annual Cleantech & Technology Metals Summit

Adrian Griffin to present "Reversing Mother Nature to Recover Lithium from Silicates"

May 8, 2017 – Lithium Australia NL (ASX: LIT), driving your future further, is pleased to announce that they will be presenting at InvestorIntel's 6th Annual Cleantech & Technology Metals Summit (CTMS2017.com | @CTMS2017). Featuring some of the most impressive market movers in the cleantech and technology metals sector, #CTMS2017 is scheduled for Monday, May 15th and Tuesday, May 16th at the Omni King Edward Hotel in Toronto, Canada located at 37 King St. East.

Adrian Griffin, Managing Director of Lithium Australia NL, will be presenting on Monday, May 15th from 11:25-11:40 AM (EST): Reversing Mother Nature to Recover Lithium from Silicates. Nearly all lithium silicates have geological DNA in common and lithium is one of the last elements to drop out of volatile magmas. The activity of components can be reversed under atmospheric conditions, making the silicates soluble again, releasing the lithium into solution for processing into valuable lithium chemicals, as well as other saleable by-products – Sileach™ has arrived.

InvestorIntel Corp. CEO Tracy Weslosky commented: "It is with great pleasure that we announce the participation of Lithium Australia NL as a presenter at our 6th annual Cleantech and Technology Metals Summit. We have over 100 companies participating in what is intended to be the most exciting review of global equities focused on strategic materials, critical metals and the associated technologies that impact the world. Please note that Adrian will be on two panels: (1) A debate on innovative processes to supply the new energy economy moderated by InvestorIntel Sr. Editor Peter Clausi on Monday, May 15th from 9:00-9:50 AM (EST); (2) discussing the lithium exploration/M&A markets moderated by InvestorIntel Editor Christopher Ecclestone on Monday, May 15th from 10:20-11:10 AM (EST). We look forward to our best #CTMS event to-date.”
