January 15, 2021 (Source) –

- A total of 439 units delivered in December 2020
- A total of 706 units delivered in Q4 2020
- Q4 deliveries included 13 bus battery systems and 1 charging system.

Ideanomics_(NASDAQ: IDEX) (“Ideanomics” or the “Company”) announces its Mobile Energy Global (MEG) division’s sales activities for the month of December and Q4 2020.

For the period starting December 1, 2020, through December 31, 2020, MEG delivered a total of 439 units, of which 356 were for the taxi/ride-hailing business segment, and the remaining 83 were for the rental car business segment. All units, invoiced during the period from July through December 2020, were delivered. The fourth quarter’s activities also include the delivery of one charging system and 13 CATL battery systems which are part of an ongoing order for converting diesel-powered buses to battery electric vehicles (BEVs). The fourth quarter results do not include any units from the recently announced deal with BYD and Didi for 2,000 units of their D1 ride hailing vehicle.
