Weav Music features are now available in the free Klocked App.

“One of the best ways to improve your 5k or marathon time is to increase your cadence,” says Trevor Doerksen, CEO of ePlay Digital. “We are thrilled to work with Weav Music to bring their expertise and technology to the Klocked platform so athletes can go get their greatest.”

“Whether you’re looking to maintain an easy pace on your long run day or drive a new personal best performance, cadence is key,” says Keit Kollo co-founder of Weav Music. “Weav Music’s adaptive technology allows users to set a fixed tempo target or match the runner’s cadence. We are thrilled to bring Weav Music performance enhancing adaptive music and AR coaching technology to Klocked.”

Weav Music’s patent-pending AR coaching features include:

- Pace audio cues to help stick to training goals
- Personal-best audio cues to help reach new goals
- Audio guides to course landmarks
- Audio coach with tips and inspiration to achieve new goals
- Cadence detection and adaptive music to enhance performance

About Weav

Co-founded in 2015, Weav Music is ushering in a new era in recorded music. The Brooklyn-based lab’s proprietary technology personalizes the experience of listening to music by adapting a recorded song in real-time, to match a listener’s activity – seamlessly remixing energy, structure, and crossfades while preserving quality and artistic integrity. The result is truly bespoke playback with unprecedented applications in fitness, sports, dance, gaming, AR/VR, and any other area where music can enhance an individual’s experience. Weav has already made waves by producing adaptive tracks by top artists via licensing deals with both major and indie labels. Weav is backed by Peloton, King River Capital and others. More information can be found at www.weav.io.
