January 8, 2018 (Source) — Fintech Select Ltd. ("Fintech Select" or the "Company") (TSX-V:FTEC) is pleased to provide a corporate update surrounding its Selectcoin platform.

The Selectcoin platform is now in the process of being activated in multiple cities across Canada, and all new locations will be listed on the Selectcoin.io website this week. The Company will continue to list new locations on its Selectcoin.io website as they come about.

The company is excited to announce that initial retail locations have started to process transactions from walk-in customers ranging from $100 to $1000 per transaction. We believe that our targeted social media marketing plan, that will launch this week, will further increase the awareness around the platform, and will assist in driving more foot traffic to our retail locations.

The Company has been setting up training programs to its distributors and retailers to educate them on Selectcoin platform, and to facilitate larger groups of retailers per gathering in order to expedite our goal of mass retail adoption across our POS locations. Furthermore, we have been involved in various discussions with multiple parties that have taken a keen interest in launching the Selectcoin platform in other global markets.
