NanoSphere Health Sciences Inc. (CSE: NSHS/ OTC: NSHSF) cannabis product brand Evolve Formulas is now stocked in over 100 dispensaries throughout Colorado. The company's pioneering product, Transdermal NanoSerum\(TM\), uses the NanoSphere Delivery System(TM) developed by the biotechnology firm to allow cannabis to enter systemic circulation within ten minutes for fast-acting, effective relief from pain, inflammation and anxiety. This milestone comes on the back of continuous growth, with the company recently signing a licensing agreement in California.

"Evolve Formulas, using revolutionary nanotechnology developed by NanoSphere Health Sciences, is advancing the cannabis industry," said David Sutton, COO and President of Nanosphere Health Sciences. "Evolve Formulas products are now available in over 100 dispensaries throughout Colorado and will soon launch in California. NanoSphere Health Sciences will continue to expand and bring these products into new markets and is currently in negotiations with several potential partners nationally and internationally."

The patent-pending NanoSphere Delivery System(TM) is the only nanotechnology being applied to the cannabis industry that can transport THC directly into the bloodstream and to the CB1 and CB2 receptors of the endocannabinoid system. The delivery system offers precise, measurable doses and rapid absorption. Using this industry-first technology, cannabinoid molecules in NanoSerum(TM) are encapsulated in nano-sized lipid membranes, enabling them to pass through the skin into the bloodstream and cells, increasing bioavailability and bioactivity.

NanoSerum(TM) is now available in 5ml and 10ml pen sizes in select medical and recreational dispensaries.
