written by Raj Shah | September 4, 2020

September 3, 2020 (Source) – NOVA LEAP HEALTH CORP. (TSXV: NLH) (“Nova Leap” or “the Company”), a 2019 TSX Venture 50™ ranked company focused on the home health care industry, is pleased to announce that it has executed a definitive agreement (the “Agreement”), dated September 3, 2020, to acquire a home care services company (“the Target”) located in the New England region of the United States. The Target reported unaudited revenues of approximately $1.697 million, and EBITDA of approximately $155,000 for the year ended September 30, 2019. All amounts are in United States Dollars (“USD”) unless otherwise specified.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the acquisition is to be made for total consideration of $660,000 of which $465,000 is payable with cash on closing and $195,000 is by way of a promissory note repayable over a three-year period bearing interest of 5% per annum. The promissory note will be secured by a corporate guarantee by Nova Leap Health Corp. and are subordinated to Nova Leap’s primary commercial lender. Closing of the acquisition is subject to final due diligence and state licensing. The acquisition is at arm’s length and there are no finder’s fees to be paid.

“We have been very successful in the New England region,” said

Chris Dobbin, President & CEO of Nova Leap. “Upon closing, this acquisition furthers our growth while allowing us to expand to a new area within the region. Nova Leap is well positioned to capitalize on the demand for private pay in-home care and we expect further growth from the region.”
