August 8, 2019 (Source) – Only five women have been carefully selected to participate in the 2019 program hosted by Canaccord Genuity

Peekaboo Beans Inc (“Peekaboo Beans” or the “Company”) (CSE:BEAN | OTCQB:PBBSF) is pleased to announce CEO and Founder, Traci Costa, will be participating in the year-long Canaccord Genuity Advisory Program for Women Entrepreneurs. Out of the numerous nominations and applications, the five women selected will receive one-on-one mentorship from Canaccord's advisory group, as well as advice with networking, strategizing and growing their companies.

Peekaboo Beans continues to drive female empowerment through both the Company's corporate structure and retail business model. The Board of Advisors holds a 75% female majority, making the Company a standout leader for women in the public markets. In addition, Peekaboo Beans' Social Retailer Program empowers women to engage with the brand through their own social media channels, which results in commission sales for women and better exposure for the Company.

Traci Costa, CEO and Founder, commented, “We have made a commitment to support women through all aspects of Peekaboo Beans. Not only do we legitimize women's online businesses with commissions from our Social Retailer Program, but we also support female leaders in the corporate world with our female-majority elected board. I look forward to gaining additional insight from Canaccord's team of advisors and continue to grow Peekaboo Beans."
