

TrustBIX Inc. Announces September 30, 2022 Year End Financial Results

written by Raj Shah | December 22, 2022

December 22, 2022 (Source) – TrustBIX Inc. (TSXV: TBIX) (OTCQB: TBIXF) (“TrustBIX” or the “Company”) announced today its financial results for the fourth quarter and fiscal year ended September 30, 2022 and September 30, 2021, and the related Management’s Discussion and Analysis.

The Company posted annual revenue of $1,675,105, down $493,723 or 22.8% from 2021, with annual operating expenses increasing to $5,641,383, up $1,373,910 or 32.2% from 2021. Non-cash annual operating expenses increased to $992,961, up $868,347 from 2021, related to stock-based compensation to incentivize our team and amortization and depreciation expense. Non-recurring expenses for the year were approximately $491,000.

The Company posted fourth quarter revenue of $450,622, down $40,591 or 8.3% from 2021, with operating expenses increasing to $1,571,013, up $546,296 or 53.3% from 2021. Non-cash annual operating expenses increased to $334,296, up $323,582 from 2021, related to, stock-based compensation to incentivize our team and amortization and depreciation expense. Non-recurring expenses for the year were approximately $95,000.

“The primary increase to operating expenses was due to non-cash and non-recurring expenses. Our focus on revenue growth and technology enhancements creates the opportunity to expand into different market sectors. The BIX platform continues to demonstrate its strength and applicability. R&D projects have converted to pilot projects with customers, and some are starting to commercialize. Moving from R&D towards commercialization, revenue may drop for a period of time as the fee for service income converts to volume-based income,” said Hubert Lau, TrustBIX CEO. “Revenue from the BIX platform is expected to scale up as the Company penetrates more market sectors with more commercialization customers. In addition, unanticipated delays in contracts to be signed led to the temporary drop in our 2022 revenue.”

The Company’s financial results for years ended September 30, 2022 and September 30, 2021, and the related Management’s Discussion and Analysis, have been filed and are available on the System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval (SEDAR) at www.sedar.com.
