

ZEN Graphene Solutions Announces Completion of Change of Classification on the TSX Venture Exchange to Industrial, Technology, Life Sciences Issuer

written by Igor Makarov | October 15, 2021

October 14, 2021 (Source) – ZEN Graphene Solutions Ltd. (“ZEN” or the “Company”) (TSX-V:ZEN and OTC:ZENYF), a Canadian, nanotechnology company focused on next-gen healthcare solutions, is pleased to announce that, further to its press release dated August 26, 2021, it has received final approval from the TSX Venture Exchange (“TSXV”) to change its classification on the TSXV from a “mining issuer” to an “industrial, technology, or life sciences issuer.” The change of classification was approved by the shareholders of the Company on September 27, 2021, in accordance with the rules and policies of the TSXV.

Given the Company’s focus on commercializing nanotechnology-enabled, next-gen healthcare solutions in the areas of prevention, detection and treatment – and its work in other areas using graphene compounds – the Company believes the change in classification on the TSXV better reflects the current core business of the Company. The change of industry classification will be effective on the TSXV as of market open on October 18, 2021.

About ZEN Graphene Solutions Ltd.

ZEN is a nanotechnology company developing and commercializing next-gen healthcare solutions in the areas of prevention, detection and treatment.
