

Nova Leap Health Corp. Announces Update on South Central U.S. Acquisition

TSXV: NLH

September 16, 2019 (Source) – NOVA LEAP HEALTH CORP. (TSXV: NLH) (“Nova Leap” or “the Company”), a 2019 TSX Venture 50™ ranked company focused on the home health care industry, is pleased to provide an update regarding the definitive agreement (the “Agreement”) to acquire a home care services company (“the Target”) located in South Central U.S., as previously announced on June 24, 2019.

The terms of the Agreement have been amended. Under the terms of the amended Agreement, dated September 13, 2019, the acquisition is to be made for a maximum total consideration of $660,000 of which $345,000 is payable with cash on closing and up to $315,000 by way of a 3-year structured Earnout (the “Earnout”). This transaction structure replaces the previous structure which included $470,000 cash on closing and a $190,000 promissory note payable over a three-year period. The maximum total consideration of $660,000 remains unchanged.

Under the Earnout, the maximum potential annual payout in each of 2020, 2021, and 2022 is subject to a ceiling of $105,000 and is calculated based on gross service revenue of the acquired operations for the previous 12-month period, which begins October 1, 2019. The Earnout is also subject to a floor such that no payments will be made in a given year if gross service revenue falls below approximately $1 million for the preceding 12-month period.

The acquisition is expected to be immediately accretive and is subject to state licensing approval. The acquisition is expected to close early October 2019 and will be funded internally.
