

Dr. Tony Mariano Receives TMS2013 Lifetime Achievement Award

During the 2nd Annual Technology Metals Summit (#TMS2013) Dr. Anthony (“Tony”) Mariano was awarded the TMS2013 Lifetime Achievement Award for his unrivaled contribution to the rare earth space. The award was presented by Constantine Karayannopoulos, President and CEO of Molycorp Inc.

During a video that accompanied the presentation of the award Jim McKenzie, President, CEO and Director of Ucore Rare Metals stated: “Tony’s a legend in the rare earth industry and I’m proud to be associated with him.” Gareth Hatch Founding Principal of Technology Metals Research and President of Innovation Metals added “...many of the rare earth deposits that are currently under development today were initially discovered and/or characterized by Tony many years ago.”
