

Northern Minerals's High Value HREE Rich Project Secures $58 Million in Funding

March 30, 2013 – George Bauk, Managing Director and CEO, Northern Minerals Ltd. (ASX: NTU) in an interview with Tracy Weslosky, Publisher of ProEdgeWire (ProEdgeWire.com) states: “the big news this year really was on the first of February when we announced the 58 million dollars in funding” and adds “from a basket price we’ve got real superiority in terms of the value of the product.”

Bauk noted that “the real benefit we’ve had has been the simplicity of extracting the xenotime from the host rock.” As a result of these developments, Northern Minerals is positioned to have an exciting 2013 and beyond.
