

Fission 3.0's Dev Randhawa on the Uranium Boomlet

written by InvestorNews | October 14, 2021

In a recent InvestorIntel interview, Peter Clausi spoke with Dev Randhawa, Chairman and CEO of Fission 3.0 Corp. (TSXV: FUU | OTCQB: FISOF) about the current upward trend in the uranium price and about Fission 3.0's portfolio of 18 highly prospective properties in Canada's prolific Athabasca Basin.

In this InvestorIntel interview, which may also be viewed on YouTube (click here to subscribe to the InvestorIntel Channel), Randhawa highlighted the effect that the US administration's focus on uranium as a source of baseload electricity, without any carbon footprint, is having on the uranium market, and uranium's role in the electric vehicle revolution. In the interview, he also talked about the upside potential for investors in Fission 3.0's project discoveries and the team's success in two discoveries in the past. Randhawa also provided an update on the closing of Fission's recent private placement.
