

David Stevenson of Lithium ONE Environmental on Its Nano Extraction Process for Lithium Production

written by InvestorNews | March 30, 2023

In this PDAC 2023 InvestorIntel interview Tracy Weslosky speaks with David Stevenson, Founder and CEO of Lithium ONE Environmental Inc. (L1X Corp.), which has a fully commercialized Nano extraction technology for the separation and production of battery-grade lithium from brine with zero external water consumption.

David tells Tracy about its plans for three pilot projects in Mexico, Chile, and Argentina for L1X Lithium™, its clean and sustainable lithium mining solution that requires no evaporation ponds and no pollution for an efficient and a complete path for lithium separation and production from brine for battery-grade output.
