

Treasury Metals' Greg Ferron on the gold market and the Goliath-Goldlund gold projects

written by InvestorNews | September 18, 2020

InvestorIntel's Tracy Weslosky spoke with Greg Ferron, CEO of Treasury Metals Inc. (TSX: TML | OTCQX: TSRMF), about Treasury Metals' Goliath gold project and their recent acquisition of the Goldlund project. "We are next to a very prolific camp – Red Lake," Greg said. He added that after Treasury Metals' Goldlund acquisition, "we are now one of the largest undeveloped gold projects in Canada with more than a 3 million ounce deposit."

Greg also discussed how investors looking to diversify are increasingly turning to gold, especially in stable, mining-friendly jurisdictions. He says that Treasury Metals' appeal lies in several factors: "We are right on the Trans-Canada Highway. That keeps our cost down. We have all the infrastructure, we have skilled labor, we have a very high-grade open pit and attractive underground grades."

Greg also provided an update on Treasury Metals' recent $11.5 million financing.
