

Eric Zaunscherb on Critical Elements Lithium's competitive advantages and the demand driven by energy storage systems

written by InvestorIntel | November 10, 2020

In a recent InvestorIntel interview, Tracy Weslosky speaks with Eric Zaunscherb, Chairman of Critical Elements Lithium Corporation (TSXV: CRE | OTCQX: CRECF), about their flagship Rose Lithium-Tantalum project located in James-Bay, Quebec. Eric starts with "Lithium ion batteries are ramping up in terms of demand driven by e-mobility and energy storage systems." And then proceeds to discuss the Critical Elements' vision, which is to be a global leading, responsible supplier of lithium hydroxide to the emerging electric vehicle and energy storage industries. Discussing the value of their First Nations relations, and the advantages relating to management with experience in taking a project to operations, Eric discusses how Critical Elements is well-positioned to play a significant role in the lithium market with one of the highest purity spodumene deposits in the world. Adding that "We aspire to be a large responsible and sustainable provider of lithium to the lithium ion battery industry."
