

Drolet Stock Notes on Durango Resources: Exploration and drilling program underway at the Windfall Lake gold mining camp

Mario Drolet, President of MI3 Communications Financières Inc. (MI3), released his Drolet Stock Notes on Durango Resources Inc. (TSXV: DGO | OTCQB: ATOXF) on October 22, 2020 for exclusive distribution on InvestorIntel. Highlights include:

- Durango is positioned for discovery holding a 100% interest in the Trove and East Barry claim blocks in the most active gold exploration camp in Quebec.
- Trove has excellent exploration potential. Durango received all the final drill permits for the Trove property in September 2019 and is currently undertaking its inaugural drill program.
- Durango's exploration crew took the opportunity of favourable weather and newly rehabilitated roads to expand the ground exploration program onto the East Barry property. The East Barry property has minimal outcrop, so all of the information we can gather on rock exposure is extremely important in order to identify geological similarities with the Windfall Lake deposit and potential mineralization associations.
- DGO traded over 17 Million shares between $0.07 & $0.155
- Support: S2; $ 0.135 S1; $0.145 Resistance: R1; $0.155 R2; $0.17
