

Hanych on Signature Resources' historical gold property Lingman Lake

Walter Hanych, President, CEO and Director of Signature Resources Ltd. (TSXV: SGU | OTCQB: SGGTF) in an interview with InvestorIntel CEO Tracy Weslosky discuss Signature's historical gold property, Lingman Lake. Walter shares that Signature has recently relogged and resampled archived core from the property, which was drilled in the late 1980's. The results confirm that there is a high grade gold deposit on the property and also a very unique gold vein. He also notes, what makes the property so exciting is that it is underexplored and underdeveloped and he further shares Signature's exploration plans for the next few quarters...to access the complete interview, click here
