In a recent InvestorIntel interview, Tracy Weslosky spoke with Paul Sarjeant, the President, COO, and Director of Kobo Resources Inc. (TSXV: KRI) about insights into the exciting potential of Kobo's mining project in West Africa. Located approximately 20 km northwest of the capital city of Yamoussoukro and directly adjacent to one of the region's largest gold mines with established processing facilities, the excitement centers around Kobo's discovery of an underexplored and promising gold mine opportunity adjacent to an operational one in Côte d'Ivoire – Kobo's 100%-owned Kossou Gold Project.
