In the East, Japan's Nikkei has displayed resilience, rebounding robustly as investors see potential in previously beaten-down stocks after the index's tumultuous week. The metals market sees gold prices trickling down, given the U.S. dollar's surge, which is attributed to predictions of sustained higher interest rates. Meanwhile, oil prices are climbing, reflecting concerns about a tightening supply, especially after Moscow's surprising temporary fuel export ban.

Sweden's SBB offloads a chunk of its education subsidiary, TotalEnergies preps to discuss its Namibian oil prospects, and India exhibits a mixed bag of financial news. India's foreign exchange reserves witness a dip, but optimism surrounds its bond yield following JPMorgan's decision.
