

Peter Cashin on the increases in scandium and rare earths recoveries on Imperial Mining's Crater Lake Development Project

written by InvestorNews | October 7, 2022

In this InvestorIntel interview, host Tracy Weslosky talks to Imperial Mining Group Ltd.'s (TSXV: IPG | OTCQB: IMPNF) President and CEO Peter Cashin about a recent announcement on the increases in scandium and rare earths recoveries on its Crater Lake Development Project in Quebec.

Peter says: "We are also doing additional work to convert some of the inferred resources into indicated (resources). And in doing that work – we've actually found areas of mineralization that are thicker than we had anticipated. So it's probably going to add to the bottom line as well." He goes on to provide an update on the progress Imperial Mining has made to move the Crater Lake project towards a Feasibility Study. Peter also talks about the use of scandium in lightweighting applications to make vehicles fuel efficient and extend battery range in electric vehicles.
