

Energy Fuels, a Leading Force in the Critical Minerals Market, Announces Q3-2023 Financial Results

written by Tracy Weslosky | November 6, 2023

Energy Fuels Inc. (NYSE American: UUUU | TSX: EFR), a prominent player in the uranium and rare earth industries, unveiled its financial results for the quarter ending September 30, 2023. And I must say, as a keen observer and a staunch supporter of Energy Fuels, it thrills me to witness the company's exponential growth and remarkable achievements. Not to mention, Energy Fuels is by far my favorite company in this domain.
